

Paddington Bear arrives at Foxton Station on a dark, damp, cold December evening What happens next? Write a story that describes his exploits. Alternatively you could draw an illustrative map of his route around the village remembering that he arrives by train. A 3D model would be good too or a collage!

P.S Remember he likes marmalade sandwiches.