Progression Statements RE 2022-23

	PT1 — Knowledge and understanding of religion and worldviews	PT2 — Responding to religion and worldviews
EYFS	Know some similarities and differences between different religious and cultural communities in this country, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class.
Year 1	Be familiar with key words and vocabulary related to Christianity and may be at least one other religion and worldviews	Begin to talk about different beliefs and practices using the correct vocabulary
	Encounter a variety of religious and moral stories from Christianity, one other religion and worldviews.	Begin to suggest meanings behind religious and moral stories.
	Show how individuals and faith communities celebrate life events. Begin to name the different beliefs and	Ask or respond to questions about how individuals and faith communities live. Express their own ideas about belief and practices of Christianity, at least one other religion.	practices creatively.
Year 2	Name the different beliefs and practices of Christianity and at least one other religion and begin to look for similarities between religions.	Talk about and find meanings behind different beliefs and practices.
	Retell some of the religious and moral stories from the bible and at least one other religious text or special books.	Suggest meanings of some religious and moral stories.
	Begin to understand what it looks like to be a person of faith.	Ask and respond to questions about what individuals and faith communities do.
	Pupils begin to use key words and vocabulary related to Christianity and at least one other religion.	Express their own ideas, opinions and talk about their work creatively using a range of different medium.
Year 3	Recall the different beliefs and practices of the religions studied at KS1 and at least one new religion or worldview	Suggest and consider the impact of different beliefs and practices.
	Recount some religious and moral stories from at least three different sources of authority	Suggest meanings of some religious and moral stories and suggest how these relate to right and wrong.
	Begin to understand that diversity exists within and between religions and worldviews	Ask and respond to questions about how individuals and faith communities live and why.
	Use key words and vocabulary related all religions studied so far.	Use a range of different media to express creatively ideas, thoughts, and opinions. Begin to explain ideas and justify opinions.
Year 4	Recall in detail and use the correct vocabulary in regard to the different beliefs and practices of different religions.	Respond to meanings behind different beliefs and practices using the correct vocabulary
	Begin to compare the similarities of at least three different religious texts or stories.	Respond to the meanings of some religious and moral stories and expresses how these relate (directly) to right and wrong.

Progression Statements RE 2022-23

Begin to understand the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to compare different responses to ethical questions looking from the perspective of different religions and worldviews Year 5 Begin to make connections between the different beliefs and practices of religions and worldviews studied so far. Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions and worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from differences of make connections between their own ideas and others. Segin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews studied so far. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldviews follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others.
Begin to compare different responses to ethical questions looking from the perspective of different religions and worldviews Begin to make connections between the different beliefs and practices of religions and worldviews studied so far. Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews follow a moral code Alea this to own lives. Year 6 Make connections between the different religions and world views studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview in cluding similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions on dothers: Begin to reflect and respond thoughtfully to a range of stories, beliefs, and practices. Provide reasons for what they mean to different some informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world respond to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Pear 6
Year 5 Pegin to make connections between the different religions and worldviews Begin to make connections between the different beliefs and practices of religions and worldviews studied so far. Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews from the range of different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Year 6 Make connections between their own ideas and others. Connections between their own ideas and others. Begin to reflect and respond thoughtfully to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Provide reasons for what they mean to different faith communities. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world Relate this to own lives. Provar 6 Make connections between their own ideas and others. In different religions and worldviews studied so far. Year 6 Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and others. Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and others.
Year 5 Begin to make connections between the different beliefs and practices of religions and worldviews studied so far. Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different beliefs and practices. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and worldviews studied so far. Year 6 Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews including similarities and differences. Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		, , , , , ,	1 3
Begin to make connections between the different beliefs and practices of religions and worldviews studied so far. Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Year 6 Begin to reflect and respond thoughtfully to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Using the correct vocabulary. Begin to respond thoughtfully to a range of stories, beliefs, and practices. Provide reasons for what they mean to different faith communities. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world Relate this to own lives. Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make connections between different beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express different beliefs and practices of religions and worldviews studied so far. Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical views studied. Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions and worldviews studied. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview in different religions and worldviews studied. Pear 6 Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions for meaning behind different beliefs stories, beliefs, and practices. Provide reasons for what they mean to different faith communities. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of path and belief in our world all different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Reflect and respectfully responde to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Express an informed view on the		different religions and worldviews beliefs and practices. Using the correct vocabulary. Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews worldviews in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of patient paint and belief in our world near this to own lives. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Reflect and respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express	Year 5	1 3	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldviews studied so far. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldviews orldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldviews follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and others. Discuss and begin to explue view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of mand others in diversity of patient religions own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of wiversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others.			3 3 3 3
Begin to compare stories, beliefs and practices from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief and practices worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldviews studied. Make connections between different beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldviews worldviews follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and worldviews worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and others. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		worldviews studied so far.	beliefs and practices. Using the correct from a variety of religions and worldviews making reference to similarities and differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Year 6 Year 6 Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the seliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world are specified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of path and belief in our world are specified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of path and belief in our world are specified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of meaning behind different religions and respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and out world.			vocabulary.
reasons for what they mean to different faith communities. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of path and belief in our world and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express differences. Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of path and belief in our world and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		from a variety of religions and worldviews	stories, beliefs, and practices. Provide
Understand and begin to evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express obout ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives. Express an informed view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express		making reference to similarities and	reasons for what they mean to different faith diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and uto express diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect this to own lives. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect this to own lives. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express		differences.	communities.
diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Begin to recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Year 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and uto express diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect this to own lives. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect this to own lives. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express		Understand and begin to evaluate the	Express an informed view on the impact of
that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express		diversity of belief in different religions, that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices. Mespond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express		nationally and globally. Begin to recognise	Relate this to own lives follow a moral code Articulate simple responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Pear 6 Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express Discuss and begin to apply own and others' ideas about ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express		that those who have non-religious worldview from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions and to express own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions about ethical questions and to express
Views studied so far. Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and to express Own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		Articulate simple responses to ethical questions	Discuss and begin to apply own and others'
Views studied so far. Make connections between different beliefs and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and to express Own ideas clearly in response. Reflect and respectfully respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		from the range of different religions and world	ideas about ethical questions and to express and practices of all religions and worldviews studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		views studied so far.	own ideas clearly in response.
studied. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions Beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express	Year 6	Make connections between different beliefs	Reflect and respectfully respond to the
Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		and practices of all religions and worldviews	significance of meaning behind different practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		studied.	beliefs and practices.
practices from different religions and worldviews including similarities and differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified reasons for similarities and differences. Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		Make links and compare stories, beliefs and	Respond respectfully to a range of writings, differences. Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		practices from different religions and	stories, beliefs and practices. Provide justified Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions Express an informed and considered view on the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		worldviews including similarities and	reasons for similarities and differences.
in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions Articulate detailed responses to ethical about ethical questions and to express		differences.
in different religions, nationally and globally. Recognise that those who have non-religious worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions the impact of diversity of faith and belief in our world. Relate this to own lives and others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express		Understand and evaluate the diversity of belief	Express an informed and considered view on Recognise that those who have non-religious world. Relate this to own lives and others. Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions about ethical questions and to express worldview follow a moral code Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions others. Discuss and apply their own and others ideas about ethical questions and to express Articulate detailed responses to ethical Discuss and apply their own and others ideas questions from the range of different religions about ethical questions and to express		_ _ -	others.
questions from the range of different religions about ethical questions and to express			Discuss and apply their own and others ideas
		·
		1	