

What do these refugees need?

14.9.15

Thousands of refugees are arriving in Europe, after leaving their own war-torn and troubled countries. People have made long and difficult journeys, often with young children.

What do you think they need immediately?

What do you think they might need in the longer term?

Draw or write your thoughts.

